JOURNALIST SCOOP

LETTER TO THE GREAT ONES OF THE WORLD:

Dear Xi Jinping, Donald Trump, Vladimir Putin

The whole world needs you, Leonardo da Vinci wrote 500 years ago :”li omini si parleranno a distanza tra stato e stato senza conoscersi” (Human being will talk to each other aloof even without meeting) and in this message relays the human desire to live in a world where the communication is part of the life and where exchanges opinions is seen as a way to improve our life in the world. We are billion of human being who can give you trust, and you are the political leader of nation who can decide to do good ar bad things. The life itself of billions of people relys on you, your decisions can create hope but also war and dispair. For this reason “Celebrando Leonardo” asks you that in all your decisions you think not only of your country but above all of those who are in need. we are convinced that the future of humanity and the planet is not to close but to open up according to precise market rules.

Leonardo's testament:

world, world that you go, walking world,
welcome the rich and the poor, the pedantic and the sick, the prophet and the prophet look around,
found in the universe do not consider yourself great, do not raise another tower of Babel, walk towards your destiny but take your shadow of common sense with you, and your sense of being part or instrument.
